The screenshot shows the GitHub sign-up page in a web browser. The browser's address bar displays the URL: `github.com/signup?ref_cta=Sign+up&ref_loc=header+logged+out&ref_page=%2F&source=header-home`. The page features the GitHub logo in the top left and a "Sign in" link in the top right. The main content area has a dark blue background with a starry pattern. A central white box contains the following text: "Welcome to GitHub!", "Let's begin the adventure", and "Enter your email*". Below this is an email input field containing the text "carlos.stunitz@outlook.com" and a green "Continue" button. A red arrow points from the bottom center of the screen to the email input field. At the bottom of the page, there is a small disclaimer: "By creating an account, you agree to the Terms of Service. For more information about GitHub's privacy practices, see the GitHub Privacy Statement. We'll occasionally send you account-related emails."

To the right of the password field is an eye icon and a green "Continue" button. Below the password field, a green line indicates the password strength:

Password is strong
Make sure it's at least 15 characters OR at least 8 characters including a number and a lowercase letter.

At the bottom, a small text block states: "By creating an account, you agree to the Terms of Service. For more information about GitHub's privacy practices, see the GitHub Privacy Statement. We'll occasionally send you account-related emails."

A red arrow originates from the bottom of the password field and points towards the "Continue" button.
